We are seeking someone for an immediate start with experience in all areas of the funeral profession, or a passion and willingness to learn.

You will be required to:

- Discuss funeral arrangements with client families
- Conduct the funeral
- Assist and support family through the funeral ceremony and other aspects of the funeral process
- Work after hours, on weekends and public holidays
- Assist with transferring deceased clients and preparation for viewings

The successful applicant will be able to demonstrate they are competent in;

- Highly developed communication skills
- Physically able to meet the requirements of the role which does involve lifting and carrying
- Meticulous attention to detail
- An ability to relate to people from various walks of life
- Exceptional personal presentation
- A willingness to learn and provide a flexible approach to the work environment
- Have a current, unrestricted driver's license
- Be willing to undergo a police check

These qualities are essential to comply with our commitment to excellence in Funeral Care. If you fulfill the stated requirements, please send your letter of application and resume to:
