- You will be provided with a suit, phone, and use of the company vehicle when on call.

What you be responsible for:

- Transfer, preparation and embalming of loved ones who have passed away.
- Casket preparation
- Funeral assistance
- Maintain the funeral vehicles ensuring they are clean and ready
- Provide exceptional care to the grieving families, friends and acquaintances

What we offer you:

- We have a strong focus on our team here
- How about a paid day off on your birthday
- 5 weeks annual leave
- Free parking

About you:

- Proven experience in a similar role (2+ years ideally)
- Friendly, polite, mature, respectful with a high degree of empathy
- Strong attention to detail and takes the initiative where required
- You will have a real sense of pride in your work and enjoy the funeral industry
- The successful candidate will need to be physically fit, able to lift heavy weights and stand for long periods
- A full and clean driver's licence is required

About Us:

Bell, Lamb & Trotter have been owned and operated by Canterbury families since 1872 and pride ourselves on providing the people of Christchurch (and its surrounds) with high quality and empathetic care. Our city is special and so are the people within it so our clients rely on us for a prompt and efficient response. Their loved ones are unique and we love creating funerals that are personal to them reflecting their wonderful personality, beliefs and culture.
